Judge Douglas and the Republicans. One of the most remarkable facts in the himtory of American politics, is the relation existing at this moment between Senator Douglas and Dip and 2 the smonth octween sentor bongins and the states who have been prominent actors in the political affairs Dip and 1 of this country within the last six years, that gentleman has been most the subject of the animadversion, the anathemas, and the bitter denunciations of the Republicans. His political Dip and 1 acts have been assailed, his motives impugned, his private character traduced he has been personally concentrated malignity of that malignant party has been discharged against him. In New England, during the campaign of 1856, it is doubtful whether Mr Douglas could have traveled in a railway car, rested at a hotel, or addressed a public meeting, without being subjected to personal indignities and insult. All this opposition to Mr Douglas grew out of his connection with the Kansas bill, and his bold, manly and effective support of the principle of popular sovereignty. For this he was denounced by the Press and Pulpit, in public and in private, as a friend of slavery, a promoter of wrong and oppression; an infamous, degraded political fiend and devil incarnate, whom to support or countenance, was rank implety and gross moral delinquency; whose association was damaging to men of character and respectability, whose whole career merited the universal condemnation of

We do not state the case too strongly; for we clearly remember the coarseness and brutality with which Judge Douglas was assailed, and the displeasure which some of our own readers manifested on account of the defence which we felt it our duty to interpose in his behalf, and in sup porting the national principles for which he was do display of pears, 5 varieties 4 each Dip & 1: so successfully laboring. What do we now witness? Time works won-All fruits must be correctly named and laders in political as in all human affairs, and at beled, according to Downing and Thomas, and this moment Judge Douglas instead of being borne down by the maledictions of his former enemics no lot can take more than one premium, with the exception of that competing for the last premium and traducers, has already become their idol, and, shall we venture to say it, their political leader. Differences have arison between him and the Administration on the very question upon which he was so long a gallant leader, and of Sugar Spoon. do and greatest var. of flowers, Thimble. which he was the most prominent defender. It is not our puspose in this article to discuss the occasion of these differences, or to rope at the reasons which we have heretofore presented, for our disapproval of the course which Mr Douglas has thought proper to adopt on the Kansas question. We accept the present posture of affairs as it exists, for the purpose of presenting the remarkable course of the Republican leaders, and of commenting briefly upon the relations at present existing between them and the object of their

In other words, he is the victim, along with Walker, Stanton, Ferney, and a few others, of an sbandonment by the Presi lont and the bulk o the Democratic Senators and Representatives in 10 00 Co igress, of the clear, well defined and Pemocratic

Such is the nature, such are the effects of Dr. Roback's amous Scandinavian Blood Purifier, which it taken in conjunction with the Scaudinavian Blood Pills, will not only obliterate the most painful disease, but prevent their recurrence, and lengthen life hevond the ordinary scan.

Lithe SCANDINAVIAN VEGETABLE BLOOD PILAS, Dr Roback presents the result of county years of experience, hard study and experiments as to what a perfect pill should be. No one can doubt their superiority after one single trial. Dr. C. W. ROBACK: I have received so much benefit from your Scandinavian Blood Purifier and Blood Pills, that I have thought it my duty, and it is no less my ininclination to give you a plain statement of my case. I was for years afflicted with that bane of all comfort, and efficiency in buisness, dyspersin. To recapithate all the so-called remedies which I have used to rid myself of this disease, wou'd indeed make a meladchol—catalogue. I also consulted with the best physicians I could hear of. In was induced to try your remedies through the persuasions of a friend, and after using them a lew days was greatly benefitted, and in a short time, less than a month. I was entirely and permanently cured. I was also afflicted with the most violent nervous headache, which I suppose was produced by my disordered stomach, for when my dispepsia left me, my headach left with it. I now feelbotter in every respect than I have for ten .e.rs.

We do not place reliance upon the rumors s new political compact between the Republican leaders and Senator Douglas. Republican-ism (black) has had its day, and we are per-fectly aware that the leaders of that party are easting about for new issues and new political alliances, upon which to conduct the next Presidential campaign. Senator Seward, if not correct in saying "the battle is over," is at least sagacious in thus early cutting loose from the dead issues of the past, and we anticipate in the next twelve months some singular and and quite new developments in political tactics. But we hope and believe that the rumored alliance be Bring tween Mr Douglas and his former focs, by which reward, Weed, McLean, and the head and fron of the old Republican organization, are to strike hands with Douglas, and with him enter the field against the National men of the country, i stance of rolitical traility and suicide.

Mr. Douglas owes it to himself, to the Democratic party, to the country, to political morality and consistency, to repudiate the leaches who have fastened upon him,—to shake off, as he would a viper, whose friendship must inevitably lead him to political ruin - N. HORRIBLE TRAGEDY

At the Alton Penitentiary. A Convict Desperado makes an attemp to secure his Liberty-Tortures one of the Guards for 24 hours-The Guard Rescued by Stratagem, but Receives some Terrible Stabs-the Convict Shot-His Dying Confessions-Vondition of the Guard-Excitement in Alton.

One of the most singular cases which ever came under our observation, or in our reading occurred yesterday morning at the Penitentiary in this city. A convict named Hall, from Chicago, who is now serving out a second term. formed the idea of acquiring his liberty in the fo lowing method: He watched his opportunity. shortly after breakfast, and when no other guard was in the hall surrounding the cells, except Mr Crabb, whom he knocked down and stunned Mr Crabb, whom he knocked down and stunned by a severe blow in the head, then dragged him into one of the lawer cells tied Crabbi, handinto one of the lower cells, tied Crabb's hands behind his back, and fastened the cell door by Breast Pins, Cuif Pins, Sleeve Buttons, Rings, Sirr means of a stick of timber, previously put in Sinds. Watch K ye, geld and silver thimbles, and not the cell by some confederate; then drew a huge variety of other articles worth from 50 cents to $15 the cell by some confederate; then drew a huge knife from his bosom, assisted Crabb to rise, put him against the door, and threatened him with death, unless he was allowed to go at lib-

This most daring attempt was soon known and promptly brought Colonel Buckmaster and paid his-guards to the spot. The convict threatened Crabb with instant death fif any attempt was made upon the door, holding his knife whitin a couple of inches off Crabb's breast For upward of an hour Colonel Buckmaster and his guards wathed an opportunity to shoot him, but there being but one opening in the door, and that CALL'in the chibrated Cheap Store, and examine quite small, he kept Crabb constantly below e. quite small, he kept Crabb constantly between him and the opening, so that he could only be reached through Crabb's body.

Thus matters continued until noon, when Emoracing everh thing new, good and useful, which crabb made some effort to open the door, but Crabb made some effort to open the door, but was immediately cut severely in the hand by the convict. During the day the convict stated by himself, a full suit of citizen's dress $100 iu money, and to be driven out of town in a close carriage accompanied by Crabb, to such place as he should designate; all of which were of course inadmissible. In the meantime however, Colonel Buckmaster procurred a pardon from the Governor, to be used in his discretion; but up to twelve o'clock last night no information of it had been given to the convict. All day the guards were on the watch to shoot the secondrel, but as had positively declared he would kill Crabb if he was not instantly killed himself, great cure had to be taken, for fear he might put his threat in execution. Crabb had no arms whatever, the yard guards not been allowed to carry any, and had nothing whatever to defend himself from any attack of the des-

The Warden Superintendent and guards were on each side of the cell, but out of sight and motionless. The convict slowly opened the door nearly enough to admit the food when a crowbar was instantly inserted. The Warden er ed out to Crabb, the imprisoned guard, to light for his life. He accordingly sprang to the opening of the door, and at length dragged himself through, but not before he was stabled by the convict nine times, seven times in the back and trice on the arms." When the poor victim was dragged out the convict barred the door again and refused to yield. He was then given a few minutes for reflection; and the rebel was, after much dodging and effort to get out of the reach of the fire shot by the Warden. The ball struck his skull was dragged out of the cell, and was thought to be dead, but soon recovered, and talked as sensibly as any mancould under the circumstances After the convict was taken out of the cell, his knife, about eight inches long, with a doub e edge, was found in the cell, and on his person was I mnd also another large knife, with a blade four inches long. Crabb, the wounded guard, was immediately taken to the hospital, and his wounds were examined and desed by Dr Wil-Hame, the prison surgeon and Allen. The left lung was found to be twice perforated by the The other wounds were not dangerous. After his wounds were dressed he telt quite comfortable, and conversed very free'v. He expressed a sense of his dangerous condition, but was calm and hopeful. His wife visited him about eleven o'clock to do, and he bore himself with much fortitude throughout the interview. The convict was laid on a mattress in the prison hall. He said he hoped Crabb would live, and in the next breath said he had put five men in the same fix he was in himself

Dr. McMasters was present, and endeavored faithfully to draw his attention to the act of his near approach to death. He exhibited no penitence or remorse, but said he "hoped that God, if there was any, would forgive him." He sent for one of his confederates, and advised him to behave himself when he got out, and not bring himself to what he saw before him.

The Missing Prisoners Fou d. - The two missing convicts, the confederates of the desner. ado Hall, who have been missing since calling of the roll last Friday evening, were found yes-terday. They had dag a hole some six feet Cordials deep in the 'o se earth underneath the dining room floor, and had so closed the entrance as to almost defy detection. When found they had a supply of provisions with them, though almost parched for water. The were absent six days. and it is tupposed they never left their place of type to the key secretion. Hall, we are informed, is worse; there is now no hope entertained of his recovery. Mr. Cranb the guard, we are pleased to announce, is rapidly recovering -Alton Democrat.

Dissolving the Union for Seven Niggers.—We are informed that there are now only seven negre slaves in the whole territory of Kansas. For a more handfullof degraded individuals the firecaters of the South and the abolition fanatics of the North, would be quite willing to see the Union dissolved, and our common country plunged into all the berrots of a civil war. In our judgment, this would be "paying to dear for the CARRETS and Oil Cloths at histle"—Philadelphia Argue.

Judge Dauglas and the Republicans. One of the most remarkable facts in the history of American politics, is the relation existing at this moment between Senator Douglas and Dip and 2 the Republican party. Of all the statesmen who 1 have been prominent actors in the political affairs Dip and 1 of this country within the last six years, that madversion, the anathemas, and the bitter denunciations of the Republicans. His political acts have been assailed his motives impugned; his private character traduced he has been personally maltreated, burned in effigy, -in short, the whole concentrated malignity of that malignant party has been discharged against him. In New England during the campaign of 1856, it is doubtful whether Mr Douglas could have traveled in a railway car, rested at a hotel, or addressed a public meeting, without being subjected to personal indignities and insult.

All this opposition to Mr Douglas grew out of his connection with the Kansas bill, and his bold. manly and effective support of the principle of popular sovereignty. For this he was denounced by the Press and Pulpit, in public and in private, as a friend of slavery, a promoter of wrong and oppression; an infamous, degraded political fiend and devil incarnate, whom to support or countehance, was rank implety and gross moral delinquency; whose association was damaging to men of character and respectability, whose whole career merited the universal condemnation of We do not state the case too strongly ; for we clearly remember the coarseness and brutality with which Judge Douglas was assailed, and the displeasure which some of our own readers manifested on account of the defence which we felt it our duty to interpose in his behalf, and in supdo display of pears, 5 varieties 4 each Dip & 1 porting the national principles for which he was so successfully laboring. We believe him right in principle and honest in purpose, and in accordance with our uniform course of sustaining what we deem to be right, by whatever party in-itiated and developed, we accord to the measures for which he was contending, an enrucht

advocacy. The late late Late & What do we now witness? Time works wonders in political as in all human affairs, and at this moment Judge Douglas, instead of being borne down by the maledictions of his former enomics and traducers, has already; become their idol, and, shall we venture to suy it, their political leader. Differences have arison between him and the Administration on the very question upon which he was so long a gallant leader, and of which he was the most prominent defender: odl is not our puspose in this article to discuss the occasion of these differences, or to repeat the reasons which we have heretofore presented, for our disapproval of the course which Mr Douglas has thought proper to adopt on the Kansas question. We accept the present posture of affairs as it exists, for the purpose of presenting the remarkable course of the Republican leaders, and of existing between their and the object of their former depunciations. Judge Douglas avers that he has not changed a single iota in his political principles; that his hogs and ascertain the price of making pork, views on the Kansas question are the same which we propose to offer, through the Allen Coun- he held when he introduced the Nebraska: Bill intoCongress and has constantly maintained and elaborated in his Senatorial and political speeches; and the differences between him and the Administration grow out of his more perfect and complete devotion to the principles of that measure. for which he was so violently traduced from 1852 to 1857 by the whole so called Republican party. In other words, he is the victim, along with Walker, Stanton, Ferney, and a few others, of an abandonment by the Presi lost and the bulk o the Democratic Senators and Representatives in commenting briefly upon the relations at present

Congress, of the clear, well defined and Pemocratic doefrine of popular sovereignty. A coll super tion. They have abandoned no vital question, yielded no important point, nor abated one jot or title of their zeal in behalt of the great cause which has so enlisted their sympathics and con-
